Guest Speakers
Scout Pack 1074

- GOCA is now sponsor for Pack 1074. The Pack (est. 1974) serves 50-75 K-5th graders annually from several area schools and offers diverse activities emphasizing the 12 core values.
- The Pack presented a citation and framed patch to GOCA in recognition of support.

Update: Bikes to Africa (Olney Days event)

- Mary Johnson, Oakdale Church: During Olney Days, 138 bikes were collected for shipment to Sierra Leone, in partnership with other local organizations. Bike access is critical for job opportunities in Sierra Leone. The project will repeat in three years.

Committee Reports

Transportation (Mindy Badin, Chair):

- Major Red Line construction will close Medical Center and Bethesda stations July 6–Sept 6.
- New laws: illegal to park in bike lanes ($250 fine); traffic camera changes; increased penalties for reckless driving.
- Recent fatality on Bauer Dr. highlighted need for safer biking/walking; Safe Streets group is exploring solutions.
- New speed cameras for St. Peter's Church & School forthcoming.

Comment: Howie Greif questioned if $250 fine for bike lane parking is excessive, suggesting GOCA consider a position.

Public Policy & Govt. Concerns (Thomas Canavan):

- Committee focus: weekly Fun Runs at Olney Farmers and Artists Market (now 6 weeks running; 8–9 attendees/week, 45 in Facebook group).
- Thanks to supporters at the market.

MidCounty Citizens Advisory Board/Services Center: No report.

Officers' Reports

Exec VP Matt Post:

- Moved to Colesville; after consultation, will step down as required by by-laws as officers must be Olney residents (effective end of meeting), but will continue to assist as able.

Announcements

- "It's Olney Time" moved to Sunday, October 26, at the Market due to rain.
- Alden English reported the Olney Post Office mailbox is often full; efforts underway (Kraut to check with Congressman Raskin/Senator Van Hollen) to improve service.

Adjournment at 8:15 pm
